Cruise

Board the sleek, silvertone of a cruise ship and savour its glittering elegance as you set sail in search of an ever-changing horizon, finding a home in some of the world’s most glamorous harbours, spectacular islands and idyllic ports of call.

With an astonishing array of facilities and activities, guests can indulge in the things there is never time to do on land. Dine in exquisite restaurants, savoring food from around the globe, take in live entertainment, dance the night away or simply sip cocktails on deck. Add to all this the outstanding first-class service from attentive crew and sumptuous accommodation, and it is understandable why cruises attract guests time and time again.

To truly capture the joy of cruising, opt for one of the more intimate, luxurious ships of Silversea, Crystal Cruises, Regent Seven Seas Cruises, Seabourn, SeaDream Yacht Club and Star Clippers, each transporting guests to amazing destinations often out of reach of larger vessels. While these companies share similarities in terms of service and dedication to guest enjoyment, they differ in size, style and the unique voyage experiences they provide. Though magical in its own right, a cruise can also feature as part of a bespoke itinerary, designed to enhance a special travel experience and provide an altogether more relaxing means of discovery.

Our chosen cruise partners offer a number of exciting itineraries which can be combined with any of our featured properties pre and post cruise. With endless combinations available there is sure to be something for everyone.

Silversea
Experience all-suite luxury cruising on one of the intimate Silversea ships. Undeniably sophisticated and tastefully designed suites allow guests to enjoy a relaxed voyage, while a crew-to-guest ratio of nearly one-to-one promises exceptional service. Life onboard Silversea involves a myriad of all-inclusive delights, with leisurely days and refined evenings combining to create a welcoming atmosphere.

Regent Seven Seas Cruise
The impressive Regent Seven Seas fleet includes the larger all-suite and all-balcony Seven Seas Mariner, Seven Seas Voyager and Seven Seas Explorer, with Seven Seas Splendor joining in 2020, while the smaller Seven Seas Navigator accommodates an exclusive 490 guests. Each voyage offers the highest levels of personal service, fine food and free unlimited shore excursions in all ports of call.

SeaDream Yacht Club
A welcome retreat for just over a hundred guests and nearly the same number of crew members, these inviting and relaxed voyages differ to those onboard larger ships. SeaDream Yacht Club’s twin mega-yachts navigate the seas in comfort, with 5-star service and facilities. The intimate size of SeaDream I and SeaDream II grants them the freedom to dock in otherwise inaccessible aquatic playgrounds.

Crystal Cruises
Acclaimed for over two decades, Crystal Cruises boast first-class service, elegant spacious accommodation and a multitude of experiences, both on land and at sea. The larger ships Serenity and Symphony are joined by the intimate 62-guest yacht Crystal Esprit, and together combine to make up a luxurious all-inclusive fleet. Crystal Endeavor, a 202-guest all-suite luxury expedition yacht, will join the fleet in 2020.

Seabourn
Luxurious and sophisticated, enjoy all that these vessels have to offer, from the all-suite accommodation, welcoming social spaces and delicious dining venues, to the thoughtful activities and entertainment. The award-winning Seabourn Odyssey, Seabourn Sojourn, Seabourn Quest and Seabourn Encore were joined in 2018 by Seabourn Ovation, helping to ensure that this remains the youngest and most modern fleet at sea.

Star Clippers
These impressive ships, including the full-rigged, five masted Royal Clipper, epitomise the elegance of the grand age of sailing. Operating three of the world’s largest and tallest sailing ships, passengers enjoy the lifestyle and laid-back atmosphere of a private yacht. Carrying between 170 and 227 guests, the Royal Clipper, Star Clipper and Star Flyer offer intimate voyages around the world.

“Once you’ve tried luxury cruising, you won’t want to cruise any other way; being on a smaller vessel you’re able to visit special destinations where larger cruise lines would not be able to go. Then after a day exploring, you can relax in your plush private suite, dine on award-winning cuisine and enjoy the fabulous on-board entertainment.”

Where can I find Thailand’s most beautiful beach?

“I would have to say on Koh Samui, at either the Four Seasons or the Banyan Tree. Even though there are no private beaches in Thailand, no one else but hotel guests can really get to these. Wake up early and you may be lucky enough to enjoy it entirely to yourself — bliss!”

What’s your must-do in Thailand?

“Definitely take a trip in a tuk-tuk – it’s great fun at night when the city (Bangkok) really comes to life! Feel the buzz, bright lights and walls of delicious street food as you stroll around like a local.”

Which hotel on the mainland is your favourite and why?

“Well there’s two really – The Siam in Bangkok and the Four Seasons Chang Mai. The Siam is just so different from your usual city hotel, the location beside the Chao Phraya River is ideal and then there’s this beautiful boutique interior filled with antiques – very unique and very stylish.”

Where would you like to visit that you haven’t yet been?

“I would love to go to Chiang Mai to see the elephants in their natural environment. I’d take my family with me next time too. Thailand isn’t just a fly and flop destination, there’s so much to see and do for all ages.”

Most breathtaking view?

“The view from Six Senses Yao Noi is gorgeous. It overlooks Phang Nga Bay where a scattering of limestone karsts jut out from the sea – drinking cocktails at The Destino Bar with that view was unforgettable.”

“I love that each tuk-tuk is different - ours had pink leather seats, a disco light dashboard and colourful hanging garlands - three wheels are definitely more fun than four!”
Laos

One of South East Asia’s most delightful destinations, Laos is a place where cultures, cities and countryside collide to produce something special. Discover thick jungles and emerald mountainsides, where timeless rural lives with stilt houses and paddy fields appear untouched by modern times.

In the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Luang Prabang, witness the ancient tradition of alms giving as hundreds of vibrantly clad monks glide through the streets at sunrise, or behold the sights and sounds of the city’s bustling Night Market, alive with richly adorned stalls. Beyond the city streets of this former French colonial town lies outstanding natural beauty, awash with striking waterfalls, meandering trails for trekking and mountain biking plus kayaking trips and river cruises. Journey up and down the mystical Mekong River on a traditional teak boat, taking in ancient ruins, scenic islands and waterfalls along the way.

It is little wonder that travellers of all ages and interests fall in love with Laos. Subterranean caves, rocky topography and thrilling jungle zip wires lend themselves to adventurous pursuits for thrill seekers. Authentic local cooking classes burst with spices and regional ingredients for foodies, while the country’s diverse mix of ethnic groups offers scope for wider cultural interaction, plus an array of exotic wild animals for nature enthusiasts. Amid all of this lie luxurious hotels and idyllic retreats that are home to blissful surroundings and tranquil spas.

Hanoi

With its colonial architecture and vibrant street life, Vietnam’s capital city is an ideal entry point for visitors drawn to the country’s mountainous north and the craggy islands of Halong Bay. With a French accent and a venerable old heart, the focal point is Hoan Kiem lake, a green oasis with an island pagoda, steeped in legend and banian trees. Dive into the wild and wonderful at every corner, sample market wares and uncover an evolving arts scene, as well as visiting famous sights including the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum.

Halong Bay

Translated as “where the dragon descends into the sea”, Halong is named after a mystical legend of how the bay came to be. The spectacular scatter of islands, dotted with wind and wave-eroded grottoes, is a vision of ethereal beauty and, unsurprisingly, northern Vietnam’s must see for travellers. Cruise on an authentic junk through the endless limestone pinnacles that protrude out of the jade waters, some with beaches and coves, and most with jungle vegetation on top, where you pass tiny floating villages and fish farms along the way.

Nestled in a delightful atmosphere, the UNESCO World Heritage town of Hoi An remains preserved with its cobbled streets and markets. Once a major port, the baguie riverside setting is a snapshot of days gone by with its Japanese merchant houses and Chinese temples merging with bars, art galleries and tailor shops. Meanwhile, just outside of the town lies swarming scenery, with sights like the Marble Mountains, a cluster of five hills made from limestone and marble with peaks, caves, tunnels and temples all just waiting to be discovered.

Con Son, the largest of the islands, is private and secluded, ringed with beaches, coral reefs and scenic bays, while remaining partially covered in thick forests. In addition to hiking, diving and exploring coastal trails and deserted beaches, there are some excellent wildlife-watching opportunities on many of the islands, including turtles nesting on the sands and amazing marine life in the nearby clear waters from February to July. Take a boat trip to nearby islands, sail a Hobie cat or cycle through Con Dao Island town, with colourful markets and historical sites.

Inside Vietnam with Rebecca Askwith

What’s your most memorable experience?

“There’s two... the Ho Chi Minh was fab, walking around the markets and then heading down the river to a cooking class where we did vegetable curvings and made Vietnamese spring rolls, a curry and a mango sticky rice. The other was our Vespa tour around Ho Chi Minh, being in the city chaos and seeing the sights from the back of a Vespa was great fun!”

What’s the one meal I shouldn’t miss?

“I love Pho; I had it every day for breakfast. It’s a simple noodle soup served with all your condiments, fresh herbs and slices of lime – it feels like a little bowl of goodness.”

Most breathtaking view?

“Our flight from Halong Bay back to Hanoi was by seaplane. The views were beautiful; the pilot did a 15-minute flight over the bay, it was just amazing.”

Where can I find Vietnam’s most beautiful beach?

“The An Son has a gorgeous beach – along stretch of golden sand.”

What’s the nightlife like?

“The nightlife in Ho Chi Minh City is crazy; you can drink late in some of the best bars, the streets are always bustling and full of life.”

What’s the most memorable experience I should have?

“There’s two… the Hoi An tour was fab, walking through timeless alleys to incense-infused temples before perusing chic designer rails beneath sleek 21st century skyscrapers. Discover streets abuzz with people and scooters, while historic sights and architecture, including the nearby infamous Cu Chi Tunnels, provide a reminder of the past. Explore markets, visit the Jade Emperor Pagoda and War Remnants Museum, immersing in all the main attractions.”

Cambodia

A small country with a large persona, Cambodia boasts a strong historical presence. Once the seat of one of Asia's most magnificent early civilizations, the mighty Khmer Empire of Angkor, the country's legendary temples continue to attract travellers from afar.

Step away from the temples, dotted with orange-robed monks, and you will find that much of Cambodia remains refreshingly unexplored. Discover charming villages and quiet towns, such as Siem Reap, with its central market and delightful atmosphere. Largely rural, Cambodia's memorable landscapes are an unembellished highlight, with beautiful stilted wooden houses set amid a patchwork of rice paddies and sugar palms, the mighty Mekong River and great Tonle Sap Lake, remote forested highlands and idyllic islands and beaches of the south.

Home to world-famous sights, including Angkor Wat, the Royal Palace and Silver Pagoda plus endless crumbling ruins and temples, Cambodia offers an explosion of culture and charm. As the blood-red sun sets on this remarkable country, wherever you are you are sure to get lost in the atmosphere, from immersing in a deluge of deliciousness on every street corner to interacting with friendly locals and retreating to resorts that provide the perfect base for your adventures.

Inside Cambodia with Amy Griffiths

Sunrise or sunset at Angkor Wat?
“Sunrise without a doubt. Your guide leads by torchlight taking you to an exclusive viewing spot, it’s pitch black when you arrive and then gradually the light comes up, the birds begin to sing and the temple emerges - your first sighting - a truly magical moment.”

What should I go and see that I may not have heard of before?
“The artisan villages - go and learn about the different types of crafts such as batik, silver making and silk weaving.”

What one thing did you learn that you didn’t know before?
“Cambodia has a turbulent history, learning about the Khmer Rouge at The Killing Fields and S-21 Prison was shocking, while Amansara’s in-house Professor gave a fascinating talk on the development and construction of Angkor Wat - why it’s built the shape it is, for example.”

Which island should I visit?
“It completely depends on your personal preference and the activities you enjoy. Song Saa is situated on two islands, where one has been left as a conservation area, and serves outstanding food while the new Alila on Koh Russey is beautifully modern and has a stunning beach.”

Where would you revisit?
“Definitely Siem Reap, although I saw all the main temples on my first visit, I’d like to go back, take it all in again and learn about them in a little more detail.”

“Visiting Malaysia for the first time this year was a real pleasure and the island of Langkawi in particular, the standard of hotels was exceptional, much higher than I expected. Though my highlight has to be seeing the orangutans in Borneo – a real dream come true.”

Malaysia

Inside Malaysia with Sophie Wormald

Where can I find Malaysia’s most beautiful beach?

“That's an easy one, it’s got to be the beach The Data and The Andaman shore in Langkawi – it’s long, wide, pristine, has soft white sand and the rainforest behind, it’s just a gorgeous bay.”

Where can I find the best street food?

“Every Malaysian will tell you that Penang is home to the country’s best street food and they’re right. George Town is a foodie hotspot, here you’ll experience Malaysia’s mix of cultures in full bloom. Don’t fill up at breakfast because you’ll want to try it all - Char Kway Teow, Laksa, Wonton Mee – my mouth is watering just thinking about it.”

Top wildlife encounter?

“I absolutely loved seeing the orangutans in their natural environment at the Sepilok Rehabilitation Centre in Borneo, it was definitely a bucket list moment for me. We saw ProboscisMonkeys too; they were very entertaining!”

What’s your most memorable experience?

“Apart from the orangutans… that’s difficult because I loved it all! My most memorable experience would have to be the cable car and oriental village in Langkawi. The views from the top are incredible, there’s a sky bridge to walk across too. I’d definitely recommend opting for a glass bottomed cable car as not many people do – we had ours all to ourselves.”

What was the most surprising thing you saw or did?

“I was impressed with our visit to the Petronas Towers as not too many people were up the top at the same time; it was really well organised. The views were great and learning about the tower’s design and construction was actually very interesting.”

“Watching the orangutans interacting, I noticed each had their own personality - playful, funny and sometimes a little grumpy - not so different from you and I...”
Indonesia

Spectacular for many reasons, least of all it’s sheer diversity and potential for adventure, this beguiling archipelago spans over 3,000 miles and 17,000 islands and is home to a kaleidoscope of amazing cultures, scenic topography, delicious food and friendly people.

Each of the exotic islands is a unique blend of cultural charm and dramatic sights, famed for crystal coastlines and beautiful beaches plus dense wilderness, volcanoes ripe for trekking, and long-tailed monkeys playing in the forests of Bali. Spiritual and serene, lose yourself in the Indonesian way of life, in the vibrant customs of towns and villages where local people are nothing less than truly warm, kind and welcoming.

Synonymous with paradise and lavish escapism, neighbouring islands Bali and Lombok are perfect romantic getaway destinations, teeming with soft sand beaches and luxurious retreats, both large and small. Though alluring for their peace and tranquility, the tropical isles of Indonesia offer much more than basking in the sun. Discover fantastic surfing and diving opportunities, ancient sights, and less frequented remote islands, where hilltop villages and traditional customs remain intact.

Where’s the best place for snorkelling?

“Good question…we went on a private snorkelling trip to the Gili Islands on our last day in Lombok. The Oberoi staff were fabulous and knew all the best spots. We saw lots of fish and were lucky enough to see a few turtles too!”

Where would you recommend for families?

“Ubud is a good choice for families as there’s so much to do there – you have culture, markets and temples alongside more adventurous activities like white water rafting and mountain biking.”

How can I learn about the culture?

“I’d recommend a day out with a guide – just tell them what your interests are and they will tailor an itinerary to suit you, adapting it on the day if necessary. Our guide in Bali was very sweet; born and raised in a village just outside of Ubud, he gave us a real insight into the Balinese way of life.”

What’s the best way to unwind?

“You mean besides lazing in the sun on one of Bali’s many beautiful beaches? There’s no shortage of great spas and retreats on the island; it’s a very spiritual destination. Healthy body, healthy mind and all that jazz!”

What’s the one meal I shouldn’t miss?

“The food at Four Seasons Jimbaran Bay was outstanding, the restaurant has a lot of everything and was really popular with the locals too. Traditional dishes such as Nasi Goreng (fried rice) or Balinese sate (skewers) can be found pretty much everywhere but for an authentic dining experience, I’d recommend visiting a local warung.”

With lush greenery at every turn, enjoy hiking through the rice fields and beside the Ayung River, trek to Mt Agung to see sunrise or uncover majestic waterfalls like Tegenungan. Witness traditional Balinese dance, try an authentic Balinese massage or experience a cooking class, relishing native dishes flavoured with spices and fresh ingredients.

Lombok

Sitting pretty, just east of Bali, Lombok may be smaller than its popular neighbour but its laidback atmosphere and fewer inhabitants make it just as appealing. Discover exceptional surfing, snorkelling and diving from the sandy shores, or venture to the nearby Gili Islands, abundant in vibrant marine life, dive schools and simple restaurants serving fresh seafood. The active volcano, Mount Rinjani, is a must for trekkers with its challenging climb and blue crater lake.

“I love the hustle and bustle of Hong Kong, not to mention the amazing shopping! On my last visit, I was fortunate enough to take a private helicopter sightseeing tour; taking off from the top of The Peninsula hotel and flying over the harbour: skyscrapers and outlying islands was an unforgettable experience”

AITO is the Association for independent and specialist holiday companies. Our member companies, usually owner-managed, are committed to high levels of professionalism, and a shared concern for quality and personal service. The Association ensures the highest standards in all aspects of tour operating. Exclusive Membership

AITO sets criteria regarding ownership, finance and quality which must be satisfied before new companies are admitted to membership. All members are required to adhere to a Code of Business Practice which encourages high operational standards and conduct.

Financial Security

An AITO member is required to arrange financial protection for all holidays and other arrangements (not just the flight arrangement). It is important that you book directly with the member under the AITO logo. This financial protection applies to customers who are resident in the UK at the time of booking and to most overseas customers who have booked directly with the member. In doing so, the member must comply with UK Government regulations. Members are required to submit details of their financial protection arrangements to AITo on a regular basis.

Accurate Brochures and Websites

All members do their utmost to ensure that all their brochures and other publications, print or electronic, clearly and accurately describe the holidays and services offered.

Professional Service and Continual Improvements

All AITO members are committed to quality, competence and excellence and believe in regular and thorough training of employees. Members continually seek to review and improve their holidays. They listen to their customers and always welcome suggestions for improving standards.

Monitoring Standards

All AITO members are monitored against quality standards regularly. All customers should receive a post-holiday questionnaire from their tour operator, the results of which are scrutinised by the Association.

In addition, customers can leave detailed feedback, accessible from the homepage of this website, or via a direct link supplied by their AITO tour operator, about their holiday experience.

Sustainable Tourism

All members acknowledge the importance of AITO’s Sustainable Tourism guidelines, which recognise the social, economic and environmental responsibilities of tour operators. Those demonstrating their achievements beyond the pure acceptance of this principle are recognised by the award of 2 to 5 star status.

Customer Relations

All members endeavour to deal swiftly and fairly with any issues their customers may raise. In the unlikely event that a dispute between an AITO member and a customer cannot be settled amicably, AITO’s low-cost Independent Dispute Settlement Service may be called upon by either side to bring the matter to a speedy and acceptable conclusion.
Many of the flights and flight-inclusive holidays in this brochure are financially protected by the ATOL scheme. ATOL protection does not apply to all holiday and travel services listed in this brochure. Please ask us to confirm what protection may apply to your booking. If you do not receive an ATOL Certificate then the booking will not be ATOL protected. If you do receive an ATOL Certificate but all the parts of your trip are not listed on it, those parts will not be ATOL protected.
